

ARE YOU PRAYING “BIBLICALLY,” OR ARE YOU JUST PRAYING?

Disciples of Jesus still plead, “Lord teach us to pray.”

This 365-day devotional commentary presents an in-depth study and encouragement for those who are determined to go deeper into a life of prayer. It combines a daily teaching on the subject of prayer with a daily devotional and prayer challenge for each day.

With the Holy Spirit as your Teacher – by comparing “His” prayers to “yours” – you will discover how to pray in the manner that Jesus instructed by His words and example.

“By using this book, believers are challenged to study devotionally on the subject of prayer from a biblical and Christ-centered perspective. Such a study should prove invaluable in the development of a life of consistent biblical prayer that is focused on Jesus and His mission.”
(Excerpt from the Foreword)

– J. Chris Schofield, Ph. D.

“Thank you, Rick, for this valuable resource to help our people be challenged each day of the year to focus and spend time with our LORD in prayer. This book is a helpful tool in helping us equip and encourage our people.”

– Rev. Michael Barrett, Pastor
Pleasant Garden Baptist Church

“...a powerful teaching tool written to help guide and challenge the reader into a closer relationship with the Master through biblically-based prayer and following the example of Jesus. Find new joy and power in praying as you learn from Jesus Himself in this wonderful devotional commentary.”
